Rainer BECKER

Rainer Becker es Jefe Adjunto de la Unidad de Política y Estrategia de la Dirección General Antitrust de la Comisión Europea [Deputy head of unit in European Commission's Competition DG with responsibility for case coordination and policy in the field of antitrust].

He previously worked on the EU's initiative for private antitrust damages actions and, before that, in operational directorates of the authority handling antitrust and merger cases in the consumer goods and manufacturing industries.

Prior to joining the Commission in 2004, Rainer was a lawyer at the Brussels and Cologne bars and a senior associate at a major international law firm. He has advised clients across a range of industries on European and German merger control, antitrust and cross-border litigation matters.

Rainer has published and spoken widely on various issues of antitrust, EU law and comparative law, and currently lectures at Heidelberg University.

Born in 1969, he was educated at universities in Germany, Spain and Canada and holds Ph.D. (Trier), LL.M. (McGill) and Ass./Ref. iur. (Trier) degrees in law. He is fluent in German, English and French and has some knowledge of Spanish.
